STATEMENT FROM DELEGATE JOSELINE PEÑA-MELNYK,
CANDIDATE FOR MARYLAND'S 4TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,
ON SUPREME COURT'S DECISION TO HEAR CASE ON PRESIDENT OBAMA'S IMMIGRATION EXECUTIVE ACTION

LAUREL, MD – Today, Delegate Joseline Peña-Melnyk released a statement in response to the Supreme Court's decision to hear a case on President Obama's Immigration Executive Action.

Delegate Peña-Melnyk said this morning:

"Today's decision by the Supreme Court of the United States to hear the case regarding President Obama's Executive Action on Immigration leaves me hopeful that many immigrant families and dreamers will finally have the opportunity to be recognized and have the ability to come out of the shadows as the President intended. As an immigrant and now citizen of this great nation, I know first-hand the struggle of these families. Millions of immigrant families across the country, and in Maryland's 4th Congressional District, make our economy vibrant, participate in our community and civic life, and are working to build this great country. They deserve a path to citizenship."

Joseline Peña-Melnyk is the toughest progressive fighter running for Congress in MD-04. A mother and state delegate, Joseline Pena-Melnyk has received the support of groups like EMILY's List, the Sierra Club, the Progressive Change Campaign Committee, the Communication Workers of America, the Latino Victory Fund and many others, from local grassroots supporters to national organizations. Delegate Peña-Melnyk is running for Congress for because she's ready to stand up to big corporations and Republican extremists to pass stronger gun safety measures, increase wages for all, close the pay gap for women, and protect women's healthcare from right wing attacks.
